Dear Friend:

Thank you for contacting my office regarding your situation.

As a United States Congressman, I represent your views and interests at the Federal or national level. Issues involving the federal or the Georgia court system are not under the jurisdiction of the United States House of Representatives and therefore, I am prohibited from becoming involved in matters dealing with the justice system. I urge you to seek the advice of a competent attorney in resolving this matter.

If I can be of service to you in the future regarding a federal agency, please do not hesitate to contact me again.

Yours truly,

Tom Price, M.D.
Member of Congress
