09/24/2010		ORAL ORDER (by docket entry only) as ordered by Judge William S. Duffey, Jr. on 9/23/10: Mr. Windsor's courier appeared today in the Clerk's Office to file several pleadings, including motions, in the above-styled action. This action was closed and judgment was entered on June 30, 2009. Based on the history and current disposition of this case and Plaintiff's previous request to stay all action in his cases because of issues with his eye, the Court directed the Clerk's Office to not accept the pleadings for filing in their present form. The Court instead ordered Mr. Windsor to first request permission to file the pleadings in this closed case and further ordered any request for permission to file in this case be limited to five pages or less in length. The purpose of this requested procedure is so the Court can evaluate if the pleadings are appropriate to be filed in this closed case and, if so, the proper form in which the pleadings should be submitted if allowed.
