Dear Mr. Windsor,

We, the grand jurors, thoroughly have reviewed the documents you provided to us. We are unable to help you with any of the issues you raised.

The powers of any grand jury in this state are limited by the constitution and the laws of Georgia. Our specific duties are limited to those listed in O.C.G.A. §15-12-71. The only investigations authorized under this statute are investigations of county offices or public buildings, county public authorities, county officers, courts, or court officials, county boards of education, or county school superintendents.

Regards,
