Dear Mr. Windsor:

The Fulton County Grand Jury received the envelopes hand delivered by you to the Fulton County Deputy Sheriffs. In your most recent documents delivered to the Grand Jury, I am unable to find the basis for any alleged criminal charges. Following your tutorial on the Grand Jury's duties, your letter, dated August 5, 2011, focuses on a number of unsubstantiated charges against the Fulton County Deputy Sheriffs and then proceeds to allege a number of charges against a series of individuals without any evidence to support those charges. Without specific evidence, we are unable to help you with any of the issues raised in the documents provided to the Grand Jury.

Should you desire to submit evidence to support your charges, I urge you to be very concise in the preparation of your documentation. Please keep in mind the powers of the grand jury in this state are limited by the constitution and laws of Georgia, as specified in O.C.G.A. §15-21-71. Investigations under this statute are limited to county offices or public buildings, county public authorities, county officers, courts, court officials, county boards of education, or county school superintendents.

Regards,
