Dear Mr. Windsor:

Judge Lee did receive and read your letter dated September 1, 2011, the letter you sent via telecopy to chambers on Monday, September 5, 2011, as well as the order entered against you by Judge Thrash less than two months ago. As Judge Thrash's Order permanently enjoins you "from filing any complaint or initiating any proceeding . . . in any court (state or federal) or agency in the United States without first obtaining leave of the federal district court," it appears you have not complied with that Order in seeking relief from this court. Neither Judge Lee nor any other Judge in this or any other Court will be able to grant you the relief you seek unless and until you comply with the Thrash Order.

Further, please be advised that while Judge Lee was the Grand Jury Presiding Judge for July and August, she is not presiding for September. Additionally, all of the Judges in this circuit are familiar with the Thrash Order, and you would have to comply with its express terms before requesting any relief from any presiding judge in this Court.

Sincerely,

Judicial Assistant to
The Honorable Kelly A. Lee
