

Contract with the Citizens of Cobb County

WHEREAS, I am a government employee or I am a candidate for an elected government office;
and

WHEREAS, I recognize that the citizens of Cobb County and the United States of America expect me to be honest and honor the Constitution and the Bill of Rights;

NOW THEREFORE, for good and valuable consideration:

I hereby promise that I will be honest in everything that I say and do while in any position with any government authority in the United States.

I promise to always tell the truth while performing my duties.

I promise to honor and defend the Constitution at all times and in all situations.

I promise to honor and defend the Bill of Rights at all times and in all situations.

I promise to bring honor and integrity to everything I do in my capacity as a public servant, and to never lose sight of the fact that my duty while serving in government is service to my country and its people by honoring and fulfilling the intent of our founders in their drafting of the Bill of Rights and the Constitution of the United States.

I will voluntarily remove myself from office if I ever violate this promise.

If a complaint is made against me and any jury finds that I have violated this Contract, I will immediately resign my position, and I will agree to never seek employment or any elected position with any government authority at the national, state, county, or local level.

EXECUTED this 24 day of February, 2012.
