Definition of Abuse

You are notified that, under section 455.010(1), RSMo, the term "abuse" includes but is not limited to the threat to commit, the attempt to commit and/or the actual commitment of the following acts, except abuse shall not include abuse inflicted on a child by accidental means by an adult household member or discipline of a child, including spanking, in a reasonable manner.

- a. Assault: "purposely or knowingly placing or attempting to place another in fear of physical harm";
- b. Battery: "purposely or knowingly causing physical harm to another by with or without a deadly weapon";
- c. Coercion: "compelling another by force or threat of force to engage in conduct from which the latter has the right to abstain or to abstain from conduct in which the person has a right to engage";
- d. Harassment: purposely or knowingly engaging in a "course of conduct" that "alarms or causes distress to an adult or child and serves no legitimate purpose. The course of conduct must be such as would cause a reasonable adult or child to suffer substantial emotional distress and must actually cause substantial emotional distress to the petitioner or child." Some examples include:
  - i. "Following another about in a public place";
  - ii. "Peering in the windows of another";
  - iii. "Lingering outside the residence of another".
- e. Sexual assault: "causing or attempting to cause another to engage involuntarily in any sexual act by force, threat of force, or duress";
- f. Unlawful imprisonment: "holding, confining, detaining or abducting another against that person's will".

Definition of Stalking

You are notified that, under section 455.501(13), RSMo, "stalking" occurs when any person purposely and repeatedly engages in an unwanted course of conduct that would cause alarm to a reasonable person. "An unwanted course of conduct" is behavior that serves no legitimate purpose. Such conduct may include following a person or unwanted communication or contact. "Repeated" means two or more incidents that show a continuity of purpose, in other words, that are intended to cause alarm. "Alarm" means to cause fear of danger of physical harm.

William M. Windsor v. Allie L. Overstreet

8. Respondent has knowingly and intentionally:

- Overstreet has knowingly and intentionally stalked Windsor, harassed Windsor, followed Windsor online, placed or attempted to place Windsor in apprehension of immediate physical harm, and has threatened to do some of the above. Overstreet has knowingly attempted to place Windsor in fear of physical harm; she has associated with others who have threatened or implied the desire to commit physical harm to Windsor, including people who have sent messages to Windsor with deadly weapons – gun, knife, and hammer; has compelled Windsor by force to spend weeks dealing with this bogus protection order matter; has harassed Windsor; has engaged in a purposeful course of conduct involving more than one incident that alarms or causes distress to Windsor and serves no legitimate purpose; that Windsor has suffered substantial emotional distress; that she has followed Windsor in public places online; has stalked Windsor; has purposely and repeatedly engaged in an unwanted course of conduct that causes alarm to Windsor when it is reasonable in his situation to have been alarmed by the conduct; has caused Windsor to fear of danger of physical harm; has committed a pattern of conduct composed of repeated acts over a period of time that serves no legitimate purpose; has sent Windsor unwanted communication; has made unwanted contact.

- Overstreet is a pathological liar who has filed a bogus stalking complaint against Windsor. She stalks Windsor. Windsor believes Overstreet is mentally imbalanced, and he believes she is capable of doing just about anything.
- Windsor believes Overstreet is responsible for sending him a bogus death announcement about a 16-year-old boy to try to trick Windsor into publishing it, to have him accused of violating HIPPA laws, to encourage people to berate and chastise him for publishing it, and to encourage people to stop supporting him.
- Windsor believes that Overstreet is directly or indirectly responsible for participating in the theft of Windsor's father's identity and the setting up a Facebook page pretending to be Windsor's deceased father. The page had photos of Windsor's father on his death bed as well as a photo of his coffin at the funeral home. The person or persons pretending to be Walter Windsor posted all types of horrible stuff, including the threat that he, she, or it will post photos of Windsor's mother (who died of breast cancer 35 years ago) having sex with his deceased father.
- Overstreet has expressed in online postings to Windsor that she was going to "blow you [Windsor] wide open." She said Windsor "made a big mistake."
- Despite cease and desist notices, Overstreet continued to post lies about Windsor. She ignored Windsor's request for retractions.
- Windsor has become the victim of stalking, harassment, defamation, libel, slander, and threats (including some death threats). He has been followed online and has been contacted online for the purpose of harassing and intimidating him. Stalkers have attempted to terrify, threaten, harass, annoy, and offend Windsor with lewd and profane language, claims of lewd and lascivious acts, threats to inflict physical harm, and more. The libel and slander is extreme. Stalkers invent one false claim after another. People who Windsor doesn't know make statements in writing that have no truth whatsoever and can be easily proven to be false. It's like they feel they can say anything and get away with it.

- Overstreet is one of these stalkers.
- The stalking of Windsor includes defamation and the making of false accusations and false statements. These false accusations include that Windsor is a pedophile, a pedophile lover, anti-gay, bigoted, a tax evader, a criminal operating a scam, a terrorist, a liar, and now a potential serial killer who, according to Overstreet, has "bought a gun for use on a group of people."
- Windsor is the victim of an outrageous petition by Overstreet that has resulted in an Ex Parte Order of Protection. Overstreet has fabricated a claim against Windsor. Overstreet has demonstrated to Windsor that she is a pathological liar. Windsor also anticipates that she will fabricate evidence and likely have witnesses lie for her.

9. I am afraid of respondent, and there is an immediate and present danger of abuse or stalking of me because:

- The stalking of Windsor includes threats, several of which he considers to be death threats. Windsor fears for his safety and the safety of his family.
- Sean Boushie, has used a Glock gun, Charles Manson's photo, and a big knife as icons when posting messages to Windsor. He recently threatened to shoot Windsor. Sean Boushie has posted online that he will be attending the April 8 hearing in Lexington, Missouri as Allie Overstreet's "bodyguard."
- One group promoted for its members to watch the movie "Kill Bill." This group, calling itself the American Mother's Political Party, has "declared war" on Windsor; the leader, Claudine Dombrowski, has posted that she will be at the hearing in Lexington, Missouri.
- Many horrible videos have been made by stalkers. In several videos, a person believed to now be working with Overstreet, Brannon T. Bridge, threatens to beat Windsor with a hammer. At least one friend of the hammer man, Curtis Butler, has previously said that he would be at Allie Overstreet's hearing in Lexington, Missouri.
- Overstreet has posted a harassing, libelous, slanderous Facebook post in which she says "Windsor posts things that he know are false...and that he has lost his mind." This is absolutely false. Windsor has never posted anything that he felt was false. Windsor hasn't lost his mind.

- Overstreet has posted a harassing, libelous, slanderous Facebook post in which she says Windsor is a liar and “make[s] shit up.” Windsor has not lied about issues involving Lawless America. Windsor has not made “shit” up.
- Overstreet has posted a harassing, libelous, slanderous Facebook post in which she says Windsor duped people. Windsor has never duped anyone.
- Overstreet has posted a harassing, damaging Facebook posting in which she encouraged people to leave Lawless America. People have left Lawless America because of Overstreet.
- Windsor was compelled to file a police report charging Overstreet with harassment and stalking. That complaint was filed with the Cobb County Georgia Police Department on February 25, 2013, Case # 13019842.
- Windsor then filed a Criminal Warrant Application with the Cobb County Magistrate Court. Windsor published a news report about the filing of this Criminal Warrant Application. Then on March 14, 2013, Overstreet obtained an Ex Parte Order of Protection against Windsor in the 15th Judicial Circuit Court, Lafayette County, Missouri. Overstreet signed the complaint under penalty of perjury. She committed massive perjury.
- Overstreet lied to the Court when she said she “quit when I saw him stalking other parents.” Windsor has never stalked anyone, and Overstreet did not quit for any such reason. Windsor has all of the emails and Facebook messages to show precisely what happened.

- Overstreet misled the Court when she wrote: “Bill Windsor threatens to show up to my April 1 court hearing with cameras and says he has a gun and published my address.” Windsor has never said anything about bringing a gun to Overstreet’s court hearing. Windsor had offered to testify as to her lies at her April 1 hearing; it wasn’t a threat. She has now successfully blocked him from that testimony through her fraudulently-obtained Protective Order. Windsor has not “published” Overstreet’s address, though there would not be anything wrong with publishing information that is available to anyone online. Windsor posted a link to a court document that contains her address as well as Windsor’s home address, and there is certainly nothing improper about that. Overstreet’s address and personal information is readily available online. Her son, Daniel, was recently convicted of burglary, and their address was published in the newspaper.
- Overstreet lied to and misled the Court when she wrote: “...since I quit Lawless America, he has threatened me publicly on his website, told lies about me, emailed me threats, brags about a gun, published my address and told others to stalk me, and says he will come here April 1 to this courthouse to sabotage my custody hearing.” Windsor has never threatened Overstreet on his website. Threat is defined as “An expression of an intention to inflict pain, injury, evil, or punishment; an indication of impending danger or harm.” Windsor has never done any such thing. There are no threats! Windsor conducted a search on Windsor’s website for “gun.” 50 results were generated, and not one of them brags about a gun. There isn’t a threat in any of the four emails. Windsor has never emailed a threat to Overstreet. Windsor has never said he would sabotage Overstreet’s custody hearing. He simply stated that he wanted the judge to know that Overstreet is a pathological liar. Windsor suspects that she lied about her ex sexually assaulting their daughter. It seems DFS and the court have made that assessment.

- Overstreet lied to the Court when she said “William Windsor has repeatedly published on his website that he has bought a gun for use on a group of people. He lists that group of people and I am one.” This is an outrageous lie and a degree of perjury that should cause criminal charges to be brought against Overstreet. Windsor has never said that he bought a gun or had a gun that he planned to use on anyone, much less a group of people.
- Overstreet lied to the Court when she said “he published a fake copy of criminal charges against me online to 50,000 people.” Windsor never published a fake copy of criminal charges. Windsor filed criminal charges.
- Overstreet lied to the Court when she said “he keeps publishing my kids actual address on line and encouraging people to get personal info on me....” This is simply a big fat lie.

- Overstreet lied to the Court when she said Windsor has personal property of hers, namely a video film.
- Windsor served Overstreet with a cease and desist notice in an attempt to stop her from making contact and defaming Windsor. Overstreet ignored it.
- Windsor published a request for retractions from Overstreet. Overstreet ignored it.

14. Pursuant to Section 455.010 to Section 455.085 RSMo, it is requested that the Court issue an Ex Parte Order of Protection restraining Counter-Respondent Overstreet from:

- i. abusing, threatening to abuse, or disturbing the peace of Windsor wherever he may be found, including the Internet;
- ii. stalking Windsor;
- iii. entering the family home, place of employment, any filming location, state capitol, or courthouse where Windsor may be, except as authorized by the Court;
- iv. communicating with Windsor in any manner or through any medium, except as specifically authorized by the Court; and
- v. accessing or viewing Windsor's websites – www.LawlessAmerica.com, www.facebook.com/lawlessamerica, www.YouTube.com/lawlessamerica, www.facebook.com/billwindsor1, www.livestream.com/lawlessamerica.
- vi. mentioning Windsor or Lawless America on any websites or in emails or other messages of any type, except as specifically authorized by the Court;
- vii. conspiring with other stalkers of Windsor and Lawless America;
- viii. hiring anyone to threaten or physically harm Windsor or his family.

15. It is further requested that, upon the hearing of this cause, the Court issue an Order of Protection enjoining Counter-Respondent Overstreet from the above acts for such time as is necessary to protect Counter-Petitioner Windsor and that the Court do the following:

- ix. order Overstreet to pay court costs;
- x. order Overstreet to pay Windsor's costs of travel to and from the Court;
- xi. order Overstreet to pay Windsor's process server fees, court reporter fees, and other legal costs.
- xii. upon the hearing of this matter, the Court read Overstreet her rights.
- xiii. upon the hearing of this matter, when Windsor establishes that Overstreet has committed crimes, the Court will have her arrested for the following crimes established:
  - 1. Perjury -- 575.040. A person commits the crime of perjury if, with the purpose to deceive, he knowingly testifies falsely to any material fact upon oath or affirmation legally administered, in any official proceeding before any court, public body, notary public or other officer authorized to administer oaths.
  - 2. False declarations -- 575.060. 1. A person commits the crime of making a false declaration if, with the purpose to mislead a public servant in the performance of his duty, he: (1) Submits any written false statement, which he does not believe to be true (a) In an application for any pecuniary benefit or other consideration; or (b) On a form bearing notice, authorized by law, that false statements made therein are punishable; or (2) Submits or invites reliance on (a) Any writing which he knows to be forged, altered or otherwise lacking in authenticity; or (b) Any sample, specimen, map, boundary mark, or other object which he knows to be false.
  - 3. obstruction of justice
  - 4. violation of 18 U.S.C. § 241 -- conspiracy against rights. If two or more persons conspire to injure, oppress, threaten, or intimidate any person in any State, Territory, Commonwealth, Possession, or District in the free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege secured to him by the Constitution or laws of the United States, or because of his having so exercised the same; or If two or more persons go in disguise on the highway, or on the premises of another, with intent to prevent or hinder his free exercise or enjoyment of any right or privilege so secured— They shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than ten years, or both; and if death results from the acts committed in violation of this section or if such acts include kidnapping or an attempt to kidnap, aggravated sexual abuse or an attempt to commit aggravated sexual abuse, or an attempt to kill, they shall be fined under this title or imprisoned for any term of years or for life, or both, or may be sentenced to death.

5. Stalking -- 565.225. A person commits the crime of stalking if he or she purposely, through his or her course of conduct, harasses or follows with the intent of harassing another person
6. Harassment -- 565.090. 1. A person commits the crime of harassment if he or she: (1) Knowingly communicates a threat to commit any felony to another person and in so doing frightens, intimidates, or causes emotional distress to such other person; or (2) When communicating with another person, knowingly uses coarse language offensive to one of average sensibility and thereby puts such person in reasonable apprehension of offensive physical contact or harm; or (3) Knowingly frightens, intimidates, or causes emotional distress to another person by anonymously making a telephone call or any electronic communication; or (5) Knowingly makes repeated unwanted communication to another person; or (6) Without good cause engages in any other act with the purpose to frighten, intimidate, or cause emotional distress to another person, cause such person to be frightened, intimidated, or emotionally distressed, and such person's response to the act is one of a person of average sensibilities considering the age of such person.
7. False reports -- 575.080. 1. A person commits the crime of making a false report if he knowingly: (1) Gives false information to any person for the purpose of implicating another person in a crime; or (2) Makes a false report to a law enforcement officer that a crime has occurred or is about to occur; or (3) Makes a false report or causes a false report to be made to a law enforcement officer, security officer, fire department or other organization, official or volunteer, which deals with emergencies involving danger to life or property that a fire or other incident calling for an emergency response has occurred or is about to occur.
8. False affidavit -- 575.050. 1. A person commits the crime of making a false affidavit if, with purpose to mislead any person, he, in any affidavit, swears falsely to a fact which is material to the purpose for which said affidavit is made. 2. The provisions of subsections 2 and 3 of section 575.040 shall apply to prosecutions under subsection 1 of this section. 3. It is a defense to a prosecution under subsection 1 of this section that the actor retracted the false statement by affidavit or testimony but this defense shall not apply if the retraction was made after: (1) The falsity of the statement was exposed.

9. any other crimes that the Court identifies.
