1. Brief on Judicial Immunity

Judges have given themselves immunity from prosecution. This is an outrage! The federal courts are not absolute, and we must all fight against it. I am not an attorney, and I am not providing legal advice to anyone. I am, however, sharing what I have researched and written in hopes that some of the core law might be helpful to others to research. MEMORANDUM OF LAW ON JUDICIAL IMMUNITY. Volbar.

2. Atlanta Federal Judge Jack Camp Arrested

Another of Atlanta's "house" federal judges, Jack Camp, has been arrested. He was caught allegedly bribing a judge (or his attorney) to get out of all of their federal judges' recused themselves in Judge Camp's case. So, the Chief Justice of The United States Supreme Court has named a judge from another circuit to handle the case. Former US District Judge Jack T. Camp was arrested on October 1, 2009 after he handed an unreviewed law enforcement agent $100 for cocaine and...

3. Will Judge Jack Camp Expose Other Federal Judges?

Atlanta Federal Judge Jack Camp was arrested on drug and gun charges related to his attorney's girlfriend. From reading the news reports, it sure sounds like Judge Camp was caught red-handed by the FBI. So, will Judge Camp will either resign or be impeached? It is impossible for me to believe a just sit of Atlanta's federal judges are not aware of the corruption in their ranks. Judge Camp has been a federal judge for 23 years. He has to know where a lot of his money...

4. Corruption in Atlanta's Federal Courts

What is the difference between a masked gun and a federal judge in Atlanta? The judges don't have masks. Atlanta's federal courts are filled with corruption. I always knew there were problems but I thought was just a common law term. I have discovered that federal judges are corrupt and future corrupt cases will be a reality. They have the power to do anything they want. I have noticed more judges, judges are being impeached or dismissed. From my personal experience...

12. California Police Officer arrested after forcing Stopped 30t
 Federal prosecutor charged Feliciano Sanchez with deprivation of rights under color of law. A former California police officer accused of sexually assaulting a motorist during a traffic stop pleaded guilty in federal court, federal prosecutors said. Feliciano Sanchez, 34, admitted in court that while on duty on May 16, 2007, he pulled over a female driver in a traffic stop and forced her to perform oral sex on him, according to a civil release from U.S. Attorney Thomas O'Brien...

13. Pennsylvania Judge Thomas Carney admitted waving a gun at another
 A Judge Thomas Carney, a district judge from Erie County, admitted waving a gun at another motorist, and he is now being put on trial for professional misconduct. A three-member panel of the Court of Judicial Discipline heard arguments in April 2011. The judge pleaded guilty to a preliminary count of disorderly conduct and was fined $541 for the highway incident in January 2009. Court papers say Carney told the judge he made obscene gestures at the other motorist for driving...

14. Georgia Judge Anthony Peters faces hearing on drug, misconduct
 A Atlanta, Peter, a north Georgia magistrate, has been charged with drug use, pointing a gun at himself in the courtroom, and beating his boss in a bizarre television rant. He blamed his strange behavior on prescription drug abuse after a devastating ATV accident. His attorney said Thursday at a state hearing. A Carroll County Magistrate Judge Anthony Peters started using painkillers after the 2003 accident and within a few years his behavior was so alarming that...

15. Missouri Sheriff Tommy Adams faces Meth Charge in State Court
 One county on the edge of the Missouri Ozarks served oddly immune to the scourge of methamphetamine trafficking the state. Boasting few meth raids or arrests in recent years, some residents may think they know why. After a meth bust landed the Carroll County Sheriff himself in jail, Tommy Adams, county sheriff for a little more than two years, was arrested earlier this month after giving meth to an informant at his cabin on a remote and hilly gravel road, according to a court...
