SELF-PROTECTION FOUND A NEW CARRYING CASE FOR THE TRIP.

This is the pistol that we purchased for self-protection. It is legal to have it in Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Virginia, so it is traveling with me in a hard-sided, locked case. This model is called The Public Defender version of The Judge. This shoots a special juiced-up shotgun-like shell, and it was recommended because the gun store said it is virtually impossible to miss the target.

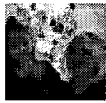

I am non-violent. but I will not hesitate to use this if needed for my self-protection.

Is it heavy? How is the pull? One of my husbands guns is really hard for me to shoot. I want to get one for my self and take lessons.

With that short of a Barrel and the recoil, in my opinion you really don't need a laser.

Paula Lombardi Bill, why would you post this? why are you allowing your followers to see how people provoke you? why not just keep it quiet and know that you have protection if needed?
