Please send me what you have done and what others have done. I thank you for that. I just must finish it.

Wow Bill:

Sorry you feel that way, I worked on it as much as I can, have had others working on it as well and still we as in all of us haven't been able to get it done in YOUR TIME ... I guess you will do what you have to do ...

Melt:

I cannot wait any longer on the database. I needed this before I left on the trip, and now it is the single most important thing needed for moving forward. So, tomorrow, I will begin doing the work myself. If work has been done, please advise. Otherwise, I will just start at the top and work my way through.

I, William M. Windsor, am not an attorney. My website and emails express my OPINIONS. The comments of visitors or guest authors to the website are their opinions and do not therefore reflect my opinions. Anyone mentioned by name in any article is welcome to file a response. My website and my emails do not provide legal advice. I do not give legal advice. I do not practice law. My website and my emails are to expose government corruption, law enforcement corruption, political corruption, and judicial corruption.

Whatever my website and emails say about the law is presented in the context of how I or others perceive the applicability of the law to a set of circumstances if I (or some other author) was in the circumstances under the conditions discussed. Despite my concerns about lawyers in general, I suggest that anyone with legal questions consult an attorney for an answer, particularly after reading anything on my website or in my emails. The law is a gray area at best.
