IV. Information About Your Grievance - Continued

1. Assistant Ellis County Texas District Attorney Ann Montgomery-Moran has used a document that she knows is both forged and incomplete as the key piece of evidence in case #90744 and case #14-158. She has used it in multiple filings with complete knowledge that the document is a fraud upon the court. 2. Tabitha Smith, James Cook, Terry Ogden, Cheri Lujan, and Johnny Brown of the State of Texas did not witness William M. Windsor signing what the State claims is a "PR Bond" in Cause #14-158. [Affidavit of William M. Windsor in support of Sanctions and Criminal Charges ("AFFI-SANCTIONS"), Exhibit 1.] But they signed a document falsely claiming that they were a witness. [AFFI-SANCTIONS, Exhibit 2.] This document is the key piece of evidence in this case, and it is a fraud. The actions of Assistant Ellis County Texas District Attorney Ann Montgomery-Moran caused William M. Windsor to be charged with felony bond jumping; to have a $100,000 judgment awarded against him; to be indicted by an Ellis County Grand Jury; to be incarcerated for 35 days in Ada County Idaho and held on $1,000,000 bond; to be incarcerated for 46 days in Missoula County Montana and held on $1,000,000 bond; and he has not had his liberty for 507 days and counting. [AFFI-SANCTIONS, ¶2.] 3. Assistant Ellis County Texas District Attorney Ann Montgomery-Moran and the State of Texas have committed crimes in signing AFFI-SANCTIONS, Exhibit 2. A warrant should be issued for her arrest on Perjury, Tampering with or Fabricating Physical Evidence, Tampering with Governmental Record, Obstruction of Justice, and any other crimes that authorities feel are appropriate. Complete details are provided in Motion for Sanctions and Criminal Charges against Assistant Ellis County Texas District Attorney Ann Montgomery-Moran and the State of Texas
